many Hall from Power.

Police Justices and the Corporation Attorney Vigorously Attacked,

Assemblyman Otto Kempner, who affiliated with Tammany Hall just long enough to be ted and then set up in politics for himself, has started out to be a Reformer.

Tammany Hall would be lift very hard if the five bills which Mr. Kempner Introduced in the Assembly yesterday should become laws. Tammany Hall is trying to create new res to provide for the faithful followers, and Mr. Kempner wants the offices and said

The Assemblyman's first bill, providing that ipal elections shall be held in the Spring, is a measure that has long been red by the Reform Club. By combining the anti-Tammany clements the Reformers think they could defeat Tammany Hall if the city elections were fought on purely local city elections were fought on purely local issues, and this could only be done successfully, they declare, by separating the city from State or National issues.

The hardest blow to Tammany domination is aimed by the bill making it a misdemeanor for any city official to intercede in behalf of any person accused of any effense or after trial or conviction. Mr. Kempner says this bill is not aimed at any one in particular, but its object is said to be to deprive Tammany Hall leaders, most of whom are office-holders, of their "pull" in the courts.

Two of the bills concern the police and civil justices. The number of police justices are by this bill to be reduced from fifteen to nine, and their salaries from $8,000 to $5,000 a year each. A supplementary bill is being prepared to repeal the law giving police justices the right to practice law. Mr. Kempner thinks that the police and civil justices should devote all their time to city business, which he declares is neglected by the justices, who devote too much time to private business.

There are five lawyers on the police beach tices, who devote too much time to private business.

There are five lawyers on the police bench now. They get the pay of Federal Cabinet officers, and the city is entitled to their sorvices exclusively, in Mr. Kempner's opinion. Regarding the cityli Justices they are to be compelled to hold court daily, instead of twice a week, which would force them to abandon their private practice.

Newark ' Costumer Has Three Girls Arrested at a Ball.

Costumer William Fischer, of Newark, has established a precedent which will create consternation among a certain class of fancy-Gress ball trequenters. He, in common with nearly every costumer in the business, has his transient customers of falling to return

Fischer last Tuesday night went with three policemen to Harburger's Hall, where a masquerade ball was in progress. He soor spotted three of his costomes, which were worn by very pretty girls whom he remembered as baving hired the dresses of his some time before. Fischer hardened his heart and created a sensation by ordering the arrest of the young women. The trio were taken to the station-house, where they contessed to Capt. Daily that they had hired the dreases and altered them so that they thought Fischer would haver recognize his prosecte.

The girl's parent re notified, and after a good deal of Pichalog the ostumer withdrew the compaints had the tearful lassless were allowed to go home after squaring up for the hire of the cestumes.

SCORES THE NATIONAL LEAGUE. Joseph Ryan Denounces Its Circulat

on the Latest Home Rule Bill. It appears to day that there is rather is lack of unanimity of opinion among trish patriots in New York as to the wisdom of the Irish National League in Issuing a circular, declaring the n Honle Rule bill, which Mr. Gladst proposes to introduce in the Brit Parliament, to be inadequate and Parliament, to be inadequate and insincere.

Secretary Joseph P. Ryan, of the National Federation of America, which is the Moral Force Irish party in this country, uses unequivocal language concerning the National League's circular. It is, to use his words, "simply idiotic," particularly the declaration that "Even should the bill (referring to Gladstone's Home Rule measure) pass, it would only place Ireland on a still lower level."

To a reporter Secretary Ryan said that the address was simply an underhand way of advising a resort to physical force.

"The sentlemen who issued the circular," continued Mr. Ryan, "represent the Sulliyan ring of the Clan-na-Gael, under cover of the National League. Once hefore they besued a pronunciamento through a Brooklyn newspaper, declaring that a return to physical force was plainly necessary. They are not what they profess to be, so it is only a waste of time to notice what they say."

Papers Were Dejective.

Because of a defective order of commitment by City Court Judge McCarthy, Lawyer Frank D. Smaw, of 115 Nassau street, was yesterday. In Supreme Court Chambers, discharged by Judge Harrett.

Judge Harrett.

Judge MacCarthy, in December, 1891, granted an order adjudging Smaw in contempt, because he had falled to pay over $150, as directed, to the receiver of the ludgment debtor in the action brought by William C. Poole against John Gill. The order was only recently enforced, and Smaw was taken into custody by the Sheriff.

The papers recited that it was for misconduct in failing to obey a mandate of the Court. Smaw secured a writ of habeas corpus, and Judge Barrett held that the commitment was fatally defective, as the ground of the contempt should be specifically set forth in it, which was not done.

The counsel wanted an hour to look into the case, but Judge Barrett refused, saying he would not hold him a minute on papers so radically defective.
